Past Events

Center Camp is Open

Sixteen members showed up May 18 to help open Center Camp. John and Myron had already cleared the arena which left raking and clean up around the buildings. Slash to be hauled away by John. The kitchen and shower trailers were uncovered and checked, and bathrooms cleaned. The access road has been widened. Reminder that to remain active members need to help with events or participate in workdays annually.

John, Ron, Kurt, Roy, Lance, Kim and others continued work on the barn which now is framed and ready for the trusses that will arrive in June.

Top Hand Ride

Six THH members marked the trail during the Top Hand pre-ride on April 19th. The Top Hand Ride on April 20 drew 30 participants, of which 16 were club members. A total of 27 riders headed out on the trail. The weather was perfect for riding. Hillsides were covered in knee-high green grasses and flowers. After the ride groups returned, lunch was served. Members brought side dishes to enjoy with the chili Roy dished up for lunch. Kris J. presented the Top Hand buckle to winner Karen R.

Mother Lode Round-up Parade

May 11, 2024

Eight Twain Harte Horsemen members rode in the 65th Mother Lode Round-up parade which drew 200 participants. Representing our club were: (not in order) Helga, Kathy, Vicki, Elaine, Judie, Carson, Cyndie and Janine. Lunch was served after the parade and a good time was had by all. The Toulumne County Sheriff's Posse did an outstanding job organizing the event and shepherding parade participants. Photo by Kris J.

Kris J. Presented Twain Harte Horsemen's gift of breast collars to the 2024 Rodeo Queen contestants at their coronation May 9.
